

1984: Book II – Chapter 3

belfry: a bell tower, either attached to a church or other building or standing apart.

privation: act of depriving

demeanor: _____

(sent.) _____

cunning: _____

(sent.) _____

hence: _____

(sent.) _____

rendezvous: _____

(sent.) _____

dung: _____

(sent.) _____

1. When Julia awoke, how did her demeanor change?
2. Where are Julia and Winston to meet four days hence?
3. What will be the sign that the coast is clear?
4. Where does Julia have to be at 19:30 and how is this ironic?
5. What does Julia call the kind of talking where they have to keep stopping and starting because they are worried about being detected?
6. What did Julia talk Winston into volunteering to do?
7. Who does the Party pick to work in Pornosec and why?

8. Explain Julia's first love affair.
9. What Newspeak word does Winston use to describe his wife Katherine?
10. What was more important about depriving people of sexual relationships?
11. How did the Party attack parenthood?
12. Winston thinks to himself that Katherine probably would have called the Thought Police on him if weren't for what?
13. What did Winston almost do one time? Now he regrets not having done it.