

1984: Book II – Chapter 4

1. At the beginning of the chapter, where is Winston?
2. Who wrote the words of the songs that the proles sing?
3. Why had working hours been increased?
4. What thought popped into Winston's head while he waited for Julia?
5. What gifts does Julia bring, and where did she get them?
6. When Winston saw the make-up and smelled the perfume, what was he reminded of?
7. What did one never see anymore except in the homes of the proles?
8. What does Julia throw her shoe at?
9. What is Winston's reaction to this?
10. When Winston starts to sing, what does Julia do that surprises him?
11. What has Julia never seen and wonders what it looks like?
12. What does Julia say that she will clean some day?